

CAREER TALK SERVICES – WHERE TO NEXT AFTER SCHOOL OR TERTIARY STUDY?

Get help finding your initial career direction with Gabrielle Riley - a friendly and supportive Waikato-based career professional. I am a qualified and experienced career coach and secondary school teacher with over 20 years' experience working with students and young people in schools, universities and in industry training.

What will you get out of career coaching?

Your career coaching session is focused on you and your needs. Using the SODA Model as a guide, we will likely cover some of these areas during the coaching.

- A better idea of who you are – including what's important to you, your interests, strengths, skills & values
- The opportunity to complete the holistic CareerSmart self-evaluation online tool
- An understanding of how to get information about different career paths including the training required
- Increased confidence about your next career step
- Help with weighing up options
- Practical assistance with applications – for jobs, or courses or scholarships
